Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat: Stephanie Jones, director, reported that auditions have been held and she has a full cast. Rehearsals are moving along well. Help will be needed in the box office. Many people who have worked the box office in past productions are on stage.

Children's Workshop: Christine Davies reported that all is a go. Shirts have been ordered. Fifty children have registered and the workshop is full. Helpers please be at the theater by 11:00 AM to help set up. Children will be divided into 5 groups.

Scholarships: Christine Smith, chairperson, reported that the applications have been sent out to the local schools and the application is also available on-line at POPS website. Applications are due to school guidance offices by May 9 and auditions are May 17.

Director's meeting: If you are interested in directing a show for next season, please plan on attending the meeting on April 26 at 9:30 AM at the Foster Community Center Theater.

New Business

Camera: Gary Hughes requested funds to purchase a camera, wide angle lens, infrared light and other items. The camera would be mounted on the ceiling and would provide a feed to the green room and the stage manager. A motion was made and approved to spend up to $700.00 for the camera ensemble.

Tools: A motion was made and approved for $250.00 to be spent on purchase of tools.

Videos: Videos of POPS shows are for archival use only and should not be posted for public consumption (i.e. YouTube). Matter will be under discussion at a future meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 6:50 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,
Christine Smith
POPS Recording Secretary.
