

Pacific Okinawa Players
General Meeting
January 28, 2008

Meeting called to order by President Stephanie Jones.

Minutes from previous meeting were approved.

Treasurer's Report: Due to privacy concerns, the Treasure's Report is only available at meetings.

Membership Report: Karin Mordt reported that we have had several new members join as a result of the shows. Please see her for membership information.

Historian Report: No historians present.

Old Business:

Private Organization Status on Torri: Still working on it, but are getting closer.

New Business:

New Board Position: Publicist-will be in charge of publicity for every show. This position will be the liaison between show producer and media contacts on base.

Improv: Freeze Frame

Board Positions: All are open but there are some that will be vacated and definitely available next year: Historian, Treasurer, Publicity, and Artistic Director.

I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change: The show will be at 5 clubs during February. Malia Jakus, director, clarified about price and ticket purchase dates. The different clubs are setting the prices. Please see the website for exact dates and locations.

Steel Magnolias: Still need help with props, backstage, set construction and lights.

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat: Audition dates are 12 & 13 March at KHS. Prepare 16 bars to sing acapella. Stephanie Jones, director, requested $500 more for her show budget to advertise the show with the Stars and Stripes.

Children's Workshop: Dates is April 26. For children ages 8-12. Time will be from 12-5:30. Participants will perform the song I Just Can't Wait to Be King. Fee of $25 will cover T-shirt, cast photo, wig, make up, props and photo printing. Projecting 50-60 participants. Helpers: Dance-Tiffany Carr, Christine Davies, Lights-Gary Hughes, Song-Emily Steiger, Christine Smith, Props-Naomi, Hair & Makeup-Stephanie Jones, Acting-Jamaal Solomon, Registration-Tina Carr, Karin Mordt. Requesting at least 4 more people to help with makeup.

Next meeting will be Monday March 10 at 6 PM at Foster Performing Arts Center.
